—Rev. R. K. White, who with his wife, was called to Norfolk, Va., some days ago on account of the critical illness of her father, returned Saturday, and filled his pulpit, Mrs. White remaining. Mr. White left again Monday for Norfolk, where he will remain for two weeks.

—Burglars attempted to enter the home of Mrs. Marguerite Powell, Friday night from the back porch door. Mrs. Powell has her back porch canvassed in. The canvass was cut and the burglars entered through the back porch. However, they were frightened away without entering the house. Mr. Fred Hill is rooming at Mrs. Powell's during the absence of her son, Mr. R. L. Powell.

—Mr. R. M. Caldwell has accepted the agency for the Levy Dry Cleaning Co., at Paris, and solicits your patronage. Work will be done speedily, and be returned to you in a very short time after it is sent away. The work is all done in Paris, nothing sent to Lexington, Cincinnati or elsewhere. This company is thoroughly prepared to do all kinds of work. Rugs and Carpets a specialty.

WEEDS AND BRANCHES MUST GO

Warnings that the Bourbon county grand jury will take action will be sent out to all property-owners who have failed to cut down weeds and overhanging branches on the roads on which their property faces, by August 21.

The State law provides that property-owners shall between July 1 and August 20 of each year cut down all weeds and overhanging branches which have grown on the side of the road, which touches their land.

City ordinances require that all weeds in the city be cut down, but at present, like three-fourths of the ordinances on the city's books, it is a dead letter, observed principally in its non-observance.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Saturday was Cupid's day in the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton. Marriage licenses were issued that day to the following couples: Conley Combs, and Miss Effie Underwood, both of Fayette county; Wm. McNeese, 23, Pendleton county, and Miss Gertrude Florence, Bourbon county; Walter I. Records, 27, Cynthiana, and Miss Mary Woods, 26, Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell formerly resided in North Middletown, where they are at present visiting Mrs. Mitchell's father, Dr. R. D. Weaver.

BETTER BOURBON BABIES.

Attention is again called to the observance of "Better Babies Week," which began yesterday, at the court house, under the direction of the Bourbon County Health and Welfare League. Physicians and assistants will be on hand to conduct the weighing and measuring of children under six years of age, and also to give advice as to the proper care and nurture of the babies in order that they may reach the standards set by the National League.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Having purchased of Mr. Charles P. Mann his Racket Store in this city I will at once close out at very low prices some of the lines he has been carrying. This is done in order to make room for the new line of dry goods, silks, notions, shoes, etc., that I have recently purchased, and which will be in and on display about August 6. My friends in Bourbon and Nicholas are especially asked to make note of my location, 607-609 Main street, Paris.

(1-1f) B. M. TUNE.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

The farm of Mr. Geo. R. Burberry, near Centerville, advertised to be sold at public auction Friday, was bid up to $210 an acre, and withdrawn.

Auctioneer M. F. Kenney sold yesterday at the court house door in this city, for Master Commissioner O. T. Hinton, the Bob Overley house on Washington street, to the Bourbon-Agricultural Bank & Trust Co., as trustee for Mrs. Myrtle Wright, for $705.

TO SELECT COMMISSIONER

The members of the Bourbon County Democratic Committee held a meeting at the court house yesterday afternoon and disposed of considerable routine business. The committee selected a list of five prominent Democrats, Benj. Woodford, Wm. Ardery, Wm. G. Talbott, Catesby Spears and John T. Collins, from which one man will be certified to the State Election Committee to serve as Election Commissioner for the next twelve months.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

James Everman, son of Mrs. J. A. Gilkey, has received his final discharge, papers from the service, and has returned to Paris. Young Everman was on the U. S. S. Texas, and made an excellent record in the service.

Landrum Payne, son of Postmaster and Mrs. J. Walter Payne, has returned to his home in this city, having received his honorable discharge from the service. He landed in America several days ago, but wished to make his homecoming a surprise. He has been in the aviation branch of the service.

Sergt. Owen T. Gibson has returned to Paris from a long service, overseas as a member of the American Expeditionary Forces, having received an honorable discharge a few days ago. Before entering the service Sergt. Gibson was rural mail carrier on one of the routes from the Paris postoffice. He enlisted in the service in the summer of 1918.

Leo Hayden, who recently received his honorable discharge from the service, has arrived from the demobilization camp at Camp Mills, Long Island, N. Y., to spend the summer in Paris with his parents, Mr. and J. W. Hayden, on Henderson street. Mr. Hayden spent a year of the service overseas, most of the time in France.

Among the recent arrivals from overseas service are the following from North Middletown, who have received honorable discharges: Marian Thomas, Herbert Sledd and Flournoy Hagan, white and Barnes Wilson, R. C. Carter, Sherman Strawder, Stanley Evans, Robt. Ranson, Charles Downey and James Thomas.

A detachment of the 83rd Field Artillery from Camp Knox, consisting of five officers and fifty men, with fifty horses and two 75 millimeter field guns, are visiting Central Kentucky towns on a recruiting trip and will exhibit in Paris before returning to Louisville. Exhibitions of a battery going into action will be given and the field guns will be placed on display and the mechanism will be explained by members of the outfit.

Private John R. Rye, of Paris, who has been in France as a member of the American Expeditionary Force, has returned to America, and is now at Camp Gordon, near Atlanta, Ga., where he will receive his discharge from the service. While in the service overseas Private Rye was with the Fifth Division of the A. E. F. He will return to this city as soon as he has been mustered out, and will be the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Rye, on Mt. Airy avenue.

After a long service overseas with the Dr. Barrow Hospital Unit No. 40, and later with another Unit in France, Mr. Baldwin Woods has returned to this city, and is at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jack Woods and family, on Eighth street. While in the discharge of his duties Mr. Woods has visited the following countries: England, France, Ireland, Italy, Germany, Russia and Africa. He has received his final discharge papers from the service, and will remain in Paris.

Private Allie Carter, just returned from overseas service in France, was tendered an old fashioned picnic dinner in the woods near his home, last week, by relatives. Those present were: W. E. Carter, T. J. Harney and family, J. H. Bell and family, O. T. Wagoner and family, Jesse Carter and family, J. H. Bell and family, O. family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Harney, Mrs. Linville and daughter, Claude Linville, Arthur Linville, Carl Linville, Henry Napier, Wilbur Crump, Allie Carter, Herbert Carter, J. S. Wagoner, Bruce Wagoner and E. P. Wagoner.

"Debarked, Deloused, Discharged," was the tersely-worded telegram received in Paris by Patrolman George M. Hill, of the Paris police force, from his son, Sergt. Lawrence Hill. Sergt. Hill received his honorable discharge from the service last week, and arrived at Newport News, Va., returning to Paris, Saturday afternoon. He enlisted in the service as a member of the Signal Corps, and was sent to Camp Shelby, at Hattiesburg, Miss, from where he was transferred with the others to France. He had been lately stationed at the Classification Camp, at Brest, France, in the personnel department. He will resume his former position in the office of the Yardmaster of the Louisville & Nashville, in this city.

Miss Eva Spencer, sister of Mrs. Wm. B. Ardery, of Paris, has arrived in New York from overseas, and is expected at home in Lexington, soon. She entered the service August 1, 1918, and has been serving in the United States hospitals in France, England and Germany since the armistice was signed. Her many friends will be glad to welcome her home.
